

There is already too much nudity and profanity on TV in family viewing hours. It's hard to find something now you can watch with children and most of the profanity is not at all necessary or adding to the show/program. Let's don't add more.